

Family Life Cycle Activity

| Stage                                                                                    | Tourism engagement | Leisure, sport engagement |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|---------------------------|
| 1. Bachelor stage: young, single people not living at home                        |                    |                           |
| 2. Newly married couples: young no children                                       |                    |                           |
| 3. Full nest 1: youngest child under 6                                            |                    |                           |
| 4. Full Nest 2: youngest child 6 or over                                          |                    |                           |
| 5. Full nest 3: older couples with dependent children                             |                    |                           |
| 6. Empty nest 1: older couples, no children living with them, still working       |                    |                           |
| 7. Empty nest 2: Older married couples, no children living at home, still working |                    |                           |
| 8. Solitary Survivor: still working                                               |                    |                           |
| 9. Solitary Survivor: retired                                                     |                    |                           |